

About Australia

Suggestion on how to use the Topic Wheel:

In groups, the students can discuss what they know about Australia, what they feel about Australia, what they want to know about Australia and ways to find out more. They can write these ideas on the topic wheel on large poster paper. Once they have finished this task, the posters they have made can be put up on display. Through group discussion and displaying ideas to the class, the key concepts can be discovered.